TILLY & SALVY'S BACON STREET FARM TO HOST
FREE FALL FESTIVAL,
"PUMPKINS FOR OUR SCHOOLS" FUNDRAISER

Pumpkin Festival October 17th 2-5pm:
Pumpkins for Our Schools, Fun, and Friends!

OCTOBER 7, 2004 - A beloved Natick institution since 1938, Tilly & Salvy's Bacon Street Farm is next week hosting its fourth annual Pumpkin Festival and Pumpkins for Our Schools Fundraiser. Last year, the store donated $3,194.32 to Natick Public Schools through this event.

The free Pumpkin Festival, set for October 17, 2pm – 5pm at the store at 100 Bacon Street in Natick, will boast a honeybee demonstration (the bees are in a viewing case), moonwalks, pumpkin crafts, and more.

The centerpiece of the festival will be successful Pumpkins for Our Schools fundraiser: the store will donate the proceeds of each pumpkin sold during the event to the school PTO or PTA of the customer's choice.

Tilly's, as it's been called by its many friends for 66 years, is a corner grocer known for its old-fashioned, family-run friendliness, its fine produce, including local and organic, butcher-quality meats, gourmet essentials, and homemade desserts. Tilly's has given thousands of dollars to local schools in recent years.
